

Media Alert
22 February 2007

MEDIA ALERT

Australia's biggest 'Harmony Day' celebration

Wednesday 21 March 2007

ACL, the largest provider of high quality English language education in Australia, will celebrate its upcoming Harmony Day event recognising the successful integration of migrants and refugees in our community.

ACL Group Managing Director Helen Zimmerman said Harmony Day, on Wednesday 21 March, encouraged Australians to say no to racism and to celebrate the achievements of our newest Australians.

Ms Zimmerman said more than 2,000 ACL students and their families are expected to attend the Harmony Day event and enjoy a range of entertainment, including a special appearance by world champion boxer Kostya Tszyu.

ACL and its partners have Adult Migrant English Program (AMEP) Colleges in Auburn, Cabramatta, Fairfield, Parramatta, Blacktown, Liverpool, and in Adelaide, South Australia.

Students attending the colleges have diverse backgrounds, hailing from countries such as Iraq, Vietnam, Sudan and Afghanistan.

EVENT DETAILS

WHAT: ACL Harmony Day Celebration

WHERE: Village Green, Bicentennial Park at Sydney Olympic Park (Homebush)

WHEN: Wednesday 21 March, 2007

TIME: 10.30am to 1pm

NOTE: Interview and photo opportunities can be arranged leading up to the day, on the day and post event.

For further information or to arrange an interview, contact Annette Madjarian, ACL Media and Promotions Manager, on 9025 4746 or 0412 554 872 or Vincent Massey, ACL Media and Promotions Officer, on 9025 4744 or 0411 446 884